

Kern County Black Chamber o f C o m m e r c e

KCBCC, 2623 F street Suite F, Bakersfield, CA. 93301 661-376-2853, kcbccpresident@outlook.com

Continuing the vision set forth by founders Ali and Earlena Morris back in 2002. This organization reached a milestone as it celebrated its 10th Anniversary in 2012. Building upon its rich history, the Kern County Black Chamber of Commerce will continue to be The Voice of Businesses in Kern County.

The Kern County Black Chamber of Commerce works to create and deliver member value through focusing resources on critical areas of business that will assure smart growth and sustainability for the county. Those critical areas include economic development, entrepreneurship, innovation, government contracting, marketing, technology, emerging industries, economic diversification, and regionalism. The Kern County Black Chamber of Commerce offers business development opportunities to organizations interested in growth through knowledge, access, and influence in Kern County and throughout the San Joaquin Valley.

Membership in the Kern County Black Chamber of Commerce means access to business advocacy, strategic events, and networking in the county of Kern and neighboring areas. If you're not a member, I encourage you to reach out to our membership department to learn about everything the Kern County Black Chamber of Commerce has to offer.

Thank you for your investment in the Kern County Black Chamber of Commerce, where Your Business is Our Business. I invite you to discover how we work with our stakeholders to create a positive business climate. I look forward to working with you and your business.

Sincerely,

Nick Hill III, President/C.E.O.
